

Historical Trauma Master Class© 2020 - The Future of Native Wellness™

Taught by Dr. Ruby Gibson, Martha Brito & Kara Big Crow

Contact us for more information and questions on registration, training dates & additional details.

Freedom Lodge
809 South Street
Suite 203
Rapid City, SD 57701
Office: 605-791-0787
freedomlodge@icloud.com

Visit
www.freedomlodge.org

Freedom Lodge & The Black Hills Historical Trauma Research and Recovery Center offer a 10-month advanced course for spiritual, mental & behavioral health specialists.

- Origins of historical trauma and how it impacts our body
- Change how historical trauma affects all levels of our health
- Somatic Archaeology© developed by Dr. Ruby Gibson
- Generational Brainspotting™ developed by Dr. Ruby Gibson
- Develop Emotional Intelligence to offset Suicidal Tendencies
- Techniques to alleviate survival stress: emotional & physical
- Facilitation and application of dynamic recovery skills & more!

Additional information:

- Space is limited to 25 students
- No tuition for Oneida Tribe employees
- Designed for Counselors, Social Workers, Recovery, DA/SA advocates, etc.
- $250 registration fee required (for provided course materials/books)
- Room, board, meals, tuition paid for Tribal Members
- $3,000 tuition for Non-Tribal Members working in Indian Country
- Multiple learning platforms: 5 in-person trainings/on-line webinars

2020 Training dates:

- ~ March 6th - Registration deadline
- ~ May 6-9 - Module 1 - Oneida Nation, Green Bay, WI
- ~ June 10-13 - Module 2 - Oneida Nation, Green Bay, WI
- ~ August 19-22 - Module 3 - Oneida Nation, Green Bay, WI
- ~ September 16-19 - Module 4 - Oneida Nation, Green Bay, WI
- ~ October 14-17 - Module 5 - Oneida Nation, Green Bay, WI